JAMES B. BRADY IN FRONT.

WINS THE HEMPSTEAD STAKES WITH-OUT BEING EXTENDED.

Quinn Brady Also Captures a Race-Minnie Adams Beaten by Orphan Lad-Marster Again Wins.

New York, October 24.—Barring a little cooless, the weather was perfact today and a large rowd turned out to witness better than average over realest.

horse racing.

James B. Brady, F. J. Farrell's good two-year

crowd turned out to witness better than average horse racing.

James B. Brady, F. J. Farrell's good two-year-old, scared the formidable opposition out of the stake feature, the Hempstead Selling Stakes, at six furlongs. He justified the' confidence of his backers, who accepted almost prohibitive odds against him, and won a cantering victory all the way in the remarkably fast time of 1:123.

Business in the layers' inclosure was practically at a standstill. The money handled did not amount to more than forty per cent. of the amount wagered under normal conditions. There was a slight improvement in the form running of the horses, half of the card going to favorites.

G. A. Wahlgren, secretary and chief owner of the racing association at Denver, was a visitor at Jamaica today. Mr. Wahlgren states that a number of valuable stakes and increased purses will be given at Overland Park next season, which will also be an extended one. Judge Joseph J. Burke, one of the best racing officials in the United States, may be engaged to preside.

The Squire is a useful two-year-old and, being scratched from the Hempstead Stakes, took the opening race of the day from such a crack as Lawrence P. Daley. He led from start to finish and won by a clear interval, but Lawrence P. Daley came with such a rush through the stretch that Miller was forced to ride him out smartly to hold his advantage. Masque ran a good race for his new owner and was a close up third. Woodlane also ran well, but Monopolist failed to do what was expected from him.

Marster kept up his winning streak by taking the second race in a close and driving finish with the frevorite. Royal Lady. It was a bad start, with Wes and Sister Frances off badly and crowded in the running and, with a good start, it is probable this pair would have contested the finish. As it was, after East End had showed the way to the stretch. Marster went by him and managed to last just long enough to win. Wes was third and Sister Frances fourth, both going faster than the two leaders.

PRINCE AHMED BEST IN HANDICAP

Takes Latonia Feature in Fast Time-Favorites Successful in Three Events

clincinnati, O., October 24.—Prince Ahmed showed a return of his best form when he won the six furlongs handicap, the feature offering, in almost track record time from a good field. Prince Ahmed and Lens alternated as favorites until near the close, when a steady play on the Ferriss candidate installed him in the honored position. He was lucky to get a moving start, which enabled him to assume an early lead and, maintaining the fast and steady pace, won all the way from Avanuter. Lens was timidly handled by Shilling, causing him to run far below his best form. The showing of Pasadena in the race was a good one, considering his long rest and in future he will be a serious factor, in handicaps.

In the youngster handicap at seven furlongs Pinkola gained a fluky victory, as Stanley Fay and Lady Martha would have led him home with clear sailing. Minder, on Pinkola, appeared to have resorted to foul tacties in the stretch run when Stanley Fay attempted to come through next the inner rail, but Lyeurgus claim of foul was not allowed, the judges being of an epinion that Lyeurgus was to blame for steering in an opening not sufficiently roomy to enable Stanley Fay to get through without suffering interference. Lady Martha, but for being shuffled back soon after the start, would have won.

Four favorites won during the afternoon, but the

In the same war is a formal the afternoon, but the bookmakers lost heavily by the victories of Sister Polly and Pinkola. Bess Ward, the longest priced winner of the afternoon, was neglected in the betting betting.

Merrick, which was claimed after his last start by G. C. Baker, trainer for Ed Alvey, and later returned to Milam by Alvey with an explanation that Baker did not have authority to claim the horse, won impressively today.

D. Riley was fined $25 by the judges for foul riding in the third race.

Coon was slightly cut behind and pulled up bleeding profusely.

Jockey Heidel was taken suddenly ill today and cancelled all his engagements, including those made for tomorrow.

CROKER LEADS THE IRISH TURFMEN

Modest Earnings of Chief Stables of the Emerald Isle.

Richard Croker heads the list of winning owners in Ireland this year, with a total of $18,430, the stakes and purses of twenty-two races. This, of course, does not include the 6.506 sovereigns or $32,500 Epsom Derby won by Orby, the $2,000 second money taken by Orby's half-sister, Rhodora, in the National Breeders' Produce Stakes at Sandown Park, or any other sums won by the Croker horses in races outside of Ireland. Second comes E. P. Gall, who in five races won a total of $15,642, making his average much greater than that of the owner of Orby, winner of the Irish Derby, J. J. Parkinson is third with $12,808, but won more races than Croker and Gall together in capturing thirty-one races.

than Croker and Gall together in capturing thirtyone races.

In the department of winning sires Croker's American bred Americus heads the list with a total of $20,000 to his credit. Orme, sire of Orby, Gray
Leg. Desmond, Count Schomberg, St. Frusquin, Florizel II. and Wildfowler follow in the order named. Gallinule, the sire which heads the Enghish list, is represented by progeny in Ireland, but their racing was inconsequential.

J. Thompson leads the professional jockeys with forty-three winners, thirty-four seconds and eighteen times third out of 130 mounts. J. E. Mamley is the leading gentleman rider of the year, having ridden thirty winning races, placed eighteen times and twenty-one thirds out of 118 mounts. Parkinson, third in the list of winning owners, is also a professional trainer, and is first in that list by a wide margin. margin

H. P. WHITNEY'S STABLE RECORD.

The unprecedented winnings of the Keene Stable this year-have naturally attracted much attention, but it is not to be overlooked that some other stables have done pretty well also. Last year H. P. Whitney's horses only won $87,775, but this year they have already amassed over $130,000, and are likely to increase this sum materially before the close of Winner—B. g, by Fatherless—Eostre (trained by J. R. Walker).

Went to post at 2:39. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second and third the same. Marster broke well, but lost his position temporarily on the first turn, then closed up rapidly on the outside, crowded the favorite in the stretch and scored finally. Royal Lady, sluffled back at the half and badly messed about on the far turn, closed up rapidly in close quarters in the stretch and just failed to get up. Wes, nearly left, moved up with a rush on the inside, closed a tremendous gap fast and was a fast going third and much the best. Sister Frances, also virtually left, made up fifteen lengths into a fast coming fourth. East End, off flying, made the running for seven furlongs and then tiref, but is extra good. Pretension made up considerable ground in the last half. Crafty was shuffled to the rear early and closed a gap. Lady Vincent slowed speed. The winner was entered for $700; no bid.

Scratched—71472 Standover, 97; 71472 Shenandoah, 97; 71180 St. Joseph, 108; 71536 D'Arkle, 99.

Went to post at 3:06. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.

Orphan Lad advantageously trailed the others close up for six furlongs, then made good finally and luckily.

Minnie Adams essayed to force the early running and was thrown back on the far turn, then came again with a fast closing rush on the inside and ran a grand race. Zienap, excessively urged to hold the lead, fixed finally. Castlewood led for the first half, was then taken back and came again very gamely in the stretch.

Winner—Blk, c, by Bannockburn or Sain—Estelle (trained by J. P. Mayberry).

Went to post at 3:55. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Quian Brady spreadeagled bis opponents in the early running and, holding on well, was never closely approached. St. Valentine was waited with too long before going after the leader in a real effort and could never get up. Flowaway, flatfooted at the start, dropped back and closed up well in the last half. Johnstown, probably short, was prominent for six furlougs, then tired. Glenecho was short and showed speed. St. Joseph, after showing early speed, quit badly. The winner was entered for $800; no bid.

Scratched—71242 Knockirky, 86.

Overweights—Hoot Mon, 2 pounds.

Went to post at 3:19. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same.

Prince Ahmed broke fast, took the lead at once and, maintaining a fast, stendy pace all the way, held the others safe throughout and won easing up. Avaunteer ran into second place after going a quarter and held that position gamely all the way. Lens, hard ridden all the way, lost some ground on the stretch turn when Shilling took him from the inner rail. Convolo had no mishaps. Pasadena was in a pocket Overweights—Lens, 1 pound.

HUMOR OF THE TURF.

that Miss Crawford would stop before she passed the last three-eighths post in her winning race at Belmont Park October 14.
"She'll die. I tell you, at the three-eighths post. She'll die. If she don't, I will."

But Miss Crawford was kept alive somehow, and the tall Kentuckian's friends were pleased to see that he didn't carry out his threat, although he looked very ruefully at that $120 to $100 Lane Allen twice, on his program.

ACTIVE PREPARATIONS AT OAKLAND. Palace Hotel Handicap, Oakland, Cal.....Feb.

Horses Gathering Rapidly for the Fast Approaching Meeting.

Oakland, Cal., October 24.—Secretary Percy W. Treat reports that entries for the stakes to be run this year are coming in every day in a way to indicate that the combined list of nominations will be considerably greater than in any previous year. Owners are filing earlier than ever before and are making more entries to the several fix and are making more entries to the several fix-tures than they have heretofore. Inability to secure stable room here caused Arthur Bennett to ship his horses to Los Angeles yes-terday. The shipment consisted of two two-year-olds, two three-year-olds and three yearlings. Bennett took with him his two jockeys, Pendergast and Keller. The former is a Texas boy of considerable promise, riding winners at the Denver, Butte and Seattle meetings. Johnny Keller is an Oakland boy who has been riding in a circus for several years. He is only fifteen years old and weighs ninety-two pounds.

is only fifteen years old and weighs ninety-two pounds.

Harry Mark is busily engaged in preparing his small but select stable for the races and anticipates a successful season. He is pointing the filly Love of Gold, which he bought from Sam Hildreth last spring for $1.500, for the California Oaks and other races for three-year-old fillies. He has also entered her in the Los Augeles Oaks. Another Hildreth colt in the Mark stable is Wallapink, a half-brother to Ed Tierney. He is Wallapink, a half-brother to Ed Tierney. He is the largest two-year-old at the track and is showing phenomenal speed in his trials, going a quarter the other day in twenty-three seconds with the crushing weight of 140 pounds on his back. He vies with Love of Gold as the stable favorite, but will not be so rapidly pushed in his work as the filly and will probably not be sent to the post until well along towards spring.

"Packy" Ryan, who is now in the east, has a two-year-old full brother to Nones, which has never started, at his farm in Kentucky, and is expected here soon with the colt.

Trainer Fisher says San Nicholas, winner of the Opening Handicap here two years ago, has about recovered from his long illness and will be put in training soon.

Supreme Court is galloping again after undergoing a severe treatment for stiffness of the shoulders.

Judge Horace Egbert, who resigned the presiding judgeship at Seattle last September on account of illness and who has been confined to his home ever since, is rapidly convalescing and will be out in a few days.

J. O. Keene has thirteen yearlings here and they are a fine looking band. In discussing them yesterday, Mr. Keene said: "I hope to get at least one good race horse out of the bunch, as I am certainly due to strike a find. I have bought close to a hundred yearlings in the last three years, and while I have got some useful horses. I have never got a real high-class one unless it might have been Raconteur, which went wrong on me almost at the very outset of his career. My present crop of yearlings are all by good horses, out of good young mares, and they act as if they could run. I tried them all out before I shipped them from New York, and there is not one in the lot that did not show me a quarter in close to 25, and some of them did the distance in 24 seconds. It remains to be seen, though, whether there are any real good ones among them."

The Keene youngsters, as yet unnamed, are as follows: Ch. f., by Royal Stag—Flirtation: b. g, by Mimic—Immediate; b. g, by Bute—Doucement, b. g, by Greenan—Prosaic: b. g, by Arkle—Woodford Lass; b. g, by Goldfinch—Petal II.; br. g, by St. Simonian II.—Sister Juliet; b. g, by Gold Heels—Divide; ch. g, by Hawkswick—Dunora; ch. g, by Prince of Melbourne—Pearls and Diamonds; ch. g, by Prince of Melbourne—Pearls and Diamonds; ch. g, by Russell—Gold Coli; ch. g, by Watercolor—Uncouth.

The Greenan—Prosaic gelding in the Keene stable which was not expected to live, is steadily improving since an operation and will recover.

DUGAN STILL DURNELL'S JOCKEY.

The report that jockey E. Dugan had signed to ride for Harry Payne Whitney has been denied by Charles E. Durnell, who has had the contract on the services of the lightweight jockey since last April, when he purchased it from Lee & Son for $5,000. Mr. Durnell says the only foundation for the report is the fact that Mr. Whitney did ask him to name a price for Dugan's contract, which Durnell did, but has not heard anything from Mr. Whitney or trainer Rogers since. Durnell says he would not, in any event, relinquish Dugan until after the close of racing in California, as he wants Dugan and only Dugan to ride for him.

ONE OF DANNY MAHER'S LOSERS.

Judgment for $5,334.04 has been rendered in favor of Acker. Merrall & Condit of New York, against Danny Maher, in a Hartford, Conn., court, This is an outcome of a venture at hotel keeping in which Danny was associated with two men who had the experience, while he had the money. He will have the privilege of paying the judgment, which was for supplies furnished the hotel. Still, since he is reputed to be the possessor of fully a quarter of a million dollars, Danny will have enough left to get along, with after paying this obligation. obligation.

TRAINS LEAVE MICHIGAN CENTRAL DEPOT, Detroit,

AT 1:00 AND 1:40 P. M.

"There's the champion romancer, old Bill Alexander of Philadelphia," said a Belmont Park regular, as he settled himself into a comfortable seat in the train. "Here's one he sprung on me years ago: "The biggest day I ever had booking was at Long Branch. I went down with a bank roll of $20,000. Lost down to $4,000 quick. Then I stood to lose $2,000 in the book and bet $2,000 in a 15 to 1 shot that won. Well, sir, I quit the day with $180,000."

"Then my blood was up and I told him the story of Harry Harbeck—true story, too. Harbeck started to the track one day and he didn't have carfare. We chipped in and when we got there gave him a dollar each to play Eberto in the mutuels. Uberto won, and he paid $840. He was lucky from the jump and left the track $16,000 winner, when he started from home without carfare.

"Oh well, that ain't much against $180,000,' said Alexander.

"But wait,' said I, determined to get even with him. "When we got back to town we went by Judge McMahon's and Harbeck beat a man out of $80,000 playing croquet."

Tous McDowell wanted to bet any old olds at all.
